

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Majed Hamad Albidah

Dr. Majed Hamad Albidah is an accomplished business, finance, and governance professional with extensive experience in auditing, banking, financial management, and executive consulting. He currently serves as the Owner and General Manager of Majed Hamad Al-Bidah Consulting Company, where he provides strategic advisory, corporate governance, and performance optimization services to clients across multiple sectors.

Prior to establishing his consulting firm, Dr. Albidah served as Financial Controller at the General Court of Audit (2017–2024), where he oversaw public sector financial management, auditing processes, and compliance with regulatory frameworks. He also gained banking experience as a Bank Officer at National Bahrain Bank (2016) and Riyadh Bank (2014–2015). Earlier in his career, he held an administrative position at Gulf Holding Company (2010–2013).

Dr. Albidah holds a Doctorate in Business Administration from Gambit Business School, Singapore (2025), a Master's in Corporate and Financial Risk Management from the University of Sussex, UK (2023), and a Bachelor's in Accounting from Imam Muhammad Ibn Saud Islamic University, Saudi Arabia (2013). He is also a Certified Public Accountant (SOCPA, 2022) and has completed multiple governance, risk, and compliance programs through OCEG (2024–2025) and a PMI-RMP Risk Management Certification (2023).